PARKER HAIL—Those who were so fortunate as to be present at the inaugural meeting of the season at the showe hall on sunday last, will not soon forget the very able and exruest address by Dr. Nesbit, of the Pittsburgh Advance. But, when to of the State and exruest address by Dr. Nesbit, from London, and the wonderful experience of "Camp Meeting John," the converted sailor, to say nothing of Mr. G. W. Baggs, Eeq., who is said to have excelled himself upon the occasion, it is conceded by all present to have been one of the grandest meetings ever held in Parker Hail. "Camp Meeting John" and Robert Herron have been engaged and will address the meeting formory and see us too often.

Our information in regard to to the reason why the Young Men's Hancock and English club did not go to Washington, Pa. Thursday night, proves to be inaccurate. The collision at Point Mi'ls precluded the possibility of trains passing until too late an hour for the club to arrive at Washington, and hence they stayed at home.

The Torcarawas road has purchased the West Viginia landing of Wolf's Ferry, and are now seeking permission to erect a treatle from that point to the old Detwiler warehouse, on Water, below Twenty-third street. The idea is to use the second story of the warehouse as a receptacle of freight. To this story the treetle will run, cars will be brought over in flats, loaded and unloaded, and retransferred to the other side. Freight is aiready being received at the warehouse and transferred to the other side. This arrangement will afford our merchants and shippers valuable, additional facilities.

CITY COUNCIL. Special Session Last Night.

SECOND BRANCH.

A big effort was made lest together a quorum of this branch but it was an unsuccessful one, and after the few nembers who had gathered in their chamber had listened for half an hour to Ed-Larkin trying to explain the reason why Indiana had gone Democratic they called Col. Goodfollow to the chair and ad-journed. PIRST BRANCH.

It was nearly 9 o'clock when a quorum was obtained in this branch, but finally the roll call showed the following members present: Mezars. Boring, Criswell Eof, Hall, Halstead, MacAdam, Schultze, Simp-

Mosers J. N. Meesrs. J. M. Gamewell, it or some weeks fire alarm her the classifier of the noble merits and ability of Mme. Janauschek. She has already won her place in the hearts of our people. The announcement of her forthcoming appearances in this city on the evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday October 19 and 20, will be hailed with great pleasure undoubtedly. Mme. Janauschek has never appeared before except in the classic drama. It is a subject of additional interest to note that this season she will appear in two modern rules,—the Countess is the great emotional play "Mother and Son," and Hortence in "Bleak House," the dramatization of Dicken's famous novel. Both performances have been placed as among the very best in Mme. Janauschek's reportoire. The new company which is to support Mme. Janauschek is very strong and able, and the plays, we are promised, will be produced with superb new costumes and appointments.

Shellbaker's Troupe.—This troupe will be here Monday night. The Times of Pittsburgh, asys: "Snellbaker's Majestic Consolidation appeared at this place of amusement last evening to the largest audience ever gathered within the walls of the building, and, we can safely say, gave the best and most novel entertainment ever presented to the Academy's patrons. Among so many good things it is difficult to particularize, but the Clipper Quartette, Karola Ordey and wife, Little All Right, Miss Maggie Cline and the excellent burliesque of Prince Pretty Pratt deserves especial mention. This company has met with the most marked success since they have been en route, and last bight's audience was only a repetition of their continue to pack the house the entire week, as there is nothing in the entertainment to which a man might not take this wife, mother, sister and sweetheart without the lear of their seeing or hearing anything to cause them to blush. The clubs from Martin's Ferry, Bellaire, Ætnaville, the surrounding country and Wheeling are invited to join in a torch-light procession and general jollification. All lovers of Republican principles and well wishers for the success of the cause are expected to show their colors, illuminate their houses, shoot sky rockets and in a general way manifest their appreciation of what the Lord and Republican voters have done for us. Flags will be presented by the Republican ladies to each of the home clubs. The presentation will be made from the speakers stand in front of the Imperial Hotel. There will be a mourn ers bench for repentant Democrats and all good people, irrespective of party, are requested to pray for them. Those who have experienced a change of heart are invited to join the jubilee, "For while the lamp holds out to burn, etc."
